

Friday 10th and Sunday 12th April, 2009

9am Good Friday

Have you ever pondered on what it really took for Jesus to bridge the gap between us and God? Have you really considered the extent of Jesus' punishment - the punishment he took for us? We often think about Jesus' suffering before and on the cross, the pain and torture he endured. And the cross becomes the symbol of Jesus sacrifice. But in many ways, the cross itself is just the beginning...

In order to bring us back to God, Jesus suffered complete separation from God. He was forsaken by his Father for the first and only time. The Trinity itself was at that point fragmented and broken. This is the way it had to be so we could be saved. The cross for Jesus didn't just represent the death sentence... It represented the wrath of God for the sins of the world.

On Friday we praise Jesus because he lost his heavenly Father for a time so we could be reunited with him and look forward to eternal life with him.

Preacher: Dan Kroon

Don't miss "The Life of Jesus" documentary today on Channel 7 at 1pm.
Presented by John Dickson on location in Israel.

9am Easter Sunday

Late last Sunday evening the ABC showed a 'Compass' program, entitled 'The Hidden Story of Jesus'. It was a presentation by an English theologian whose aim it was to find similarities between the story of Jesus, and stories of other religions. And there certainly appear to be some similarities.

One thing however, was glaringly absent in his presentation, and that was the UNIQUENESS of the Christian story! The death and resurrection of Jesus should have been presented as absolutely different from what any other religion offers! For without Jesus taking upon Himself the righteous judgment of God against US, and without Jesus rising again, proving thereby that His saving work was truly done, what hope do we have? None!

Let us celebrate Easter 2009 by not just singing about the wonderful resurrection news, but let us celebrate daily in response to the Easter news by LIVING A NEW LIFE!

Preacher: Keith Warren
