

Glorify God
Nurture to Maturity
Bring Others
to Christ

Sunday 17th May, 2009

9am

In Revelation 3: 1-6 we come face to face with a dead church, even though it had a marvellous reputation. But Jesus sees beyond the façade whether it's churches or individuals.

It is so easy for us to be fooled by outward appearances, not only in others but even in ourselves! Christ uncovers our very hearts, and He calls us to repentance.

The church we look at this morning, Sardis, was impressively busy with all kinds of things, but it appears that they did not acknowledge Jesus before men. They did not allow themselves to be guided and enthused by the Spirit of Chris, the Spirit of Life!

We ought to make sure that Chris will acknowledge us before His Father in heaven.

Preacher: Keith Warren

5pm

This Sunday night we continue on in our series in Galations. This week we see what it means to "grow up" from slaves to adolescents to heirs. We've seen so far how the Galations were trying to turn back to their old ways to attain acceptability in God's eyes.

This week, we see God's perspective on things and how what seems so impractical is actually the centerpiece to our very lives.
