

9am

This week we continue our series through the book of Jonah - Chapter 3. And again we find ourselves marvelling at the greatness of God. After Jonah has sunk to the lowest depths, God rescues him and delivers him and calls him once again to the task of spreading his word. We've seen how human Jonah can be, but we've also seen how mighty God can be. And through the feeble words of the runaway prophet, God brings the great, godless city of Ninevah to repentance. Though we are weak, God can still work wonders through us. He calls us to spread the gospel, and when we do, He saves.

Want to break free?

The call to freedom is one of the most motivational themes in human history. And the quest for freedom has sparked some of civilisation's greatest upheavals and victories. The question needs to be asked: do we know what true freedom is, and do we understand how to live in it? Even though most people see faith as a loss of freedom, in Jesus we find it is something very different.

- Christians and Christian leaders in Orissa
- the sale of the Boundary Road property.

GOD DELIVERS IN ORISSA

Praise God that prayer for Orissa has been answered through the recent election outcome. Confounding the politicians, pollsters and pundits, the Indian National Congress party and the rump United Progressive Alliance (UPA) have received a resounding vote of confidence taking them into majority territory on their own. Many political pundits also spoke of an X factor in the verdict of Election 2009. The Evangelical Fellowship of India (EFI) believes that this X Factor is God.
