

Sunday 7th June, 2009

9am

The last chapter of Jonah is a strange addition to the rest of the story. Just when we think all is going to end well, we get chapter 4. But there is always more to learn - that is the point. And this week we learn even more about the greatness of God and the love of God. We learn more about how to live in humility. We learn more about God being in control. And we learn more about God's heart for people.

Reading: Jonah 4.

The One thing that really matters

Paul closes his letter to the Galatian Christians with a crisp and succinct personal note. As he summarises his main point in the letter, he opens our eyes to one of the most wonderful realities: the very thing Jesus' followers are freed to do and to be.

RCRC has a passion for the community. A number of years ago some members of our Church set up some sporting teams to compete in local competitions. The intention was to have a mixture of people from RCRC and some that aren't as a real context for mission. If you would like to be involved in any RCRC sport sides such as golf or indoor cricket or would like to expand the ministry, email josh.hemelaar@gelita.com
