

Sunday 5th & 12th July, 2009

9am

The church in Philadelphia (in ancient Asia Minor, today's Turkey) is one of the two churches (two out of seven!) in the Book of Revelation which do not receive criticism from the Lord. It's an insignificant little church: few resources, little finances, no programs, not many movers and shakers in this church.

But in the eyes of the Lord they were a mega-church! They have kept the Lord's Word, they have not denied His Name, and they practiced godly endurance.

Christ - as the only One who opens (and closes!) the Kingdom of heaven - has set before this insignificant group of Christians an open door! That is: an open door into the Kingdom, and an open door into the world!

Reading: Revelation 3: 7-13

Preacher: Keith Warren

Preacher 12th July: Greg Tenni

5pm

Where do you turn when life weighs you down? What underpins your hope that you'll endure? Peter understood these questions when he wrote to exiled Christians buckling under persecution and suffering. His response may surprise, though. Not content to offer pithy 'how to' advice, he draws their attention (and ours as well) away from false hopes to focus instead upon the one who gives us living hope.

Preacher: Rod McWilliams
