Like Father, Like Son

You can tell a tree by its fruit, and God wants his children to be known by his own character. So, what would happen if the Spirit's fruit were a lot more visible in your life?

Reading: Galations 5:22-23

Preacher: David Groenenboom

5pm

When you're led down a dark path by a guide, it requires some action on your part: you need to go with that guide. When we're led through life by the Holy Spirit, it requires some action on our part: we need to keep in step with the Spirit (Galatians 5:25). So, how can we keep in step with Spirit? We walk the line, we obey, we listen, we depend. In our society it is unpopular to do this, but this is how we live by the Spirit and see the fruit of the Spirit evident in our lives.

Reading: Galations 5:25, Romans 7:7-8:39.

KIDS @ CHURCH MUSICAL!!!

On Sunday 2nd August, the children are keen to present a mini musical to the congregation, "The World's Most Amazing Book." during the morning worship service. Parents, please encourage your children to learn their lines if they have been given a part. We want to thank you for encouraging them to try their hardest. There is a dress rehearsal on Saturday 1st August at 3:00pm until 5:00pm so that we can rehearse in the auditorium for the following day. Just a reminder also if the children can wear denim shorts or jeans and a white shirt, if possible. Thanks for your support,
Janette Hemelaar
